

Bradford Godfrey, CFA

Director of Alternative & Asset Allocation Strategies, Institutional Portfolio Manager

Bradford Godfrey is vice president of Eaton Vance Management, director of alternative and asset allocation strategies and institutional portfolio manager for Eaton Vance's suite of global income offerings including absolute return strategies and currencies as well as tactical asset allocation and commodity strategies. He is responsible for client and internal communications and insights on alternative investments as well as investment strategy and portfolio positioning, including views on capital markets, valuations, and macroeconomic and political events. He joined Eaton Vance in 2002.

Brad began his career in the investment management industry in 2000. Before joining Eaton Vance, he was affiliated with MFS Investment Management.

Brad earned a B.S. from the University of Richmond. He is a member of the CFA Society Boston and is a CFA charterholder. His commentary has appeared in the Financial Times, InvestmentNews and numerous online publications.