

Matthew Navins, CFA

Director of Income Product & Portfolio Strategy, Institutional Portfolio Manager

Matthew Navins is a vice president of Eaton Vance Management, director of product and portfolio strategy for global equity mandates and an institutional portfolio manager for Eaton Vance's broad suite of equity strategies, including value and Atlanta Capital Management strategies. Matt is responsible for client and internal communications and insights on investment strategy and portfolio positioning. He joined Eaton Vance in 2008.

Matt began his career in the investment management industry in 1997. Before joining Eaton Vance, he was affiliated with BlackRock, where he served as a vice president and product specialist for the firm's fundamental large-cap growth team. Prior to that, he was a product manager with State Street Research & Management, working with U.S. equities. He has additional experience with CDC IXIS and MFS Investment Management.

Matt earned a B.A. from Bates College in 1997. He is a member of the CFA Society Boston and a CFA charterholder.