

Benjamin Pomeroy

Relationship Manager

Benjamin Pomeroy is a vice president of Eaton Vance Management and relationship manager for the firm's Defined Contribution – Investment Only (DCIO) and subadvisory services, as well as institutional business activities. He is responsible for relationship management activities for the DCIO and subadvisory platforms serving the DCIO, subadvisory and variable annuity markets. He began his career in the investment management industry with Eaton Vance in 2004.

Ben earned a B.A., with honors, from Castleton State College and an M.A. from George Washington University. He holds his Series 6, 7 and 63 FINRA licenses.