

David Michaud, CFA, CFP

National Sales Director, Advisory Services Group

David Michaud is a vice president of Eaton Vance Distributors and national sales director in the firm's Advisory Services Group, responsible for the sales and service of the firm's offerings for the registered investment advisor, bank trust and private wealth communities. He began his career in the investment management industry with Eaton Vance in 1994. Previously, Dave was director of Eaton Vance's Sub-Advisory and Defined Contribution – Investment Only (DCIO) Services.

Dave earned a B.S. from Syracuse University's Whitman School of Management and an MBA from Babson College's F.W. Olin Graduate School of Business. He earned the Certified Financial Planner (CFP®) designation and is a CFA charterholder. He holds his Series 6, 7, 24 and 63 FINRA licenses.