

Jeffrey A. Rawlins, CFA

Director of Investment Research - Global Income

Jeffrey Rawlins is a vice president of Eaton Vance Management and director of investment research on Eaton Vance's global income team. He is responsible for all research in support of the team's investment activities, initiating research efforts, managing ongoing research projects and, accordingly, presenting findings and recommendations to the team. He joined Eaton Vance in 2005.

Jeff began his career in the investment management industry in 1983. Before joining Eaton Vance, he was a managing director and fixed-income portfolio manager with State Street Research. He was previously affiliated with Shearson Lehman and State Street Bank.

Jeff earned a B.A. from Hamilton College, graduating summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa. He has published various white papers including "Pension Management In A World of Balance" (October 2005), "Solving the Pension Management Riddle" (December 2006), "The Slow March to LDI" (July 2007) and "LDI: More Than Duration-Matching" (Institutional Investor 2008). He is a CFA charterholder.
