

Meghann Clark

Senior Compliance Officer

Meghann Clark is a vice president of Eaton Vance Management and senior compliance officer. She is responsible for corporate compliance procedure management and investment guideline monitoring for institutional separate accounts and 40 Act (Investment Company Act of 1940) funds. She joined Eaton Vance in 2004. Meghann began her career in the investment management industry in 1999. Before joining Eaton Vance she was a compliance supervisor with Investors Bank and Trust.

Meghann earned a B.A. from Providence College and an MBA from the Olin Graduate School of Business at Babson College.