

Antoinette Russell

Director of Wealth Advisory Services

Antoinette Russell is vice president and director of wealth advisory services of Eaton Vance Investment Counsel, a division of Eaton Vance that provides investment management and counseling services to high-net-worth individuals, families, trusts and foundations. She is responsible for providing an integrated family office platform for clients using a cohesive approach to their financial, tax and estate planning objectives. She joined Eaton Vance in 2009.

Antoinette began her career in the investment management industry in 1998. Before joining Eaton Vance, she was a senior client advisor with SCS Financial, LLC. She was previously a managing director at Bank of Boston.

Antoinette earned a B.A. from Northeastern University, an MBA in business management from Simmons College and has completed the program for financial planners at Boston University.