

Ira Baron

Regional Sales Director

Ira Baron is a vice president of Eaton Vance Distributors and regional sales director for the firm's brokerage sales team. He is responsible for sustaining existing business relationships as well as cultivating new business for Eaton Vance's products through his brokerage team. He joined Eaton Vance in 2000.

Ira began his career in the investment management industry in 1983. Before joining Eaton Vance, he was national sales manager for PruChoice in its western division. He was previously affiliated with Prudential Investments and Putnam Investments.