

Thomas Luster, CFA

Director of Quantitative Strategies, Investment Grade Fixed-Income Portfolio Management and Trading

Thomas Luster is a vice president of Eaton Vance Management, and director of Eaton Vance's quantitative strategies team within the investment grade fixed-income portfolio management and trading team. He is responsible for rules-based fixed-income strategies, quantitative research and investment process automation. He began his career in the investment management industry with Eaton Vance in 1995.

Before entering the investment management industry, Tom was affiliated with Deloitte & Touche Consulting and the Naval Center for Space Technology.

Tom earned a B.S. from George Washington University and an MBA from the University of Chicago. Tom is a member of the CFA Society Boston and was formerly chairman and a governor's appointee to the board of trustees of Health Care Security, which oversees the investment of Tobacco Litigation Settlement funds for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. He is a CFA charterholder.

Tom's commentary has appeared in The Wall Street Journal, Reuters, Investor's Business Daily and American Banker, and he has been featured on New England Cable News and Bloomberg Radio.