

Kathryn Langridge

Kathryn Langridge of Lloyd George Investment Management (Bermuda) Limited is a portfolio manager.

Kathryn joined Lloyd George Management, an Eaton Vance investment adviser, in September 2007 as a director and senior portfolio manager. Prior to joining Lloyd George, she was affiliated with INVESCO Perpetual from 1990-2005, where she was head of international equity products. Kathryn managed the Global Smaller Companies Fund for 17 years and was awarded the Lipper Citywire Fund Manager of the Year award in 2005 in the Global Growth Category. She also managed the INVESCO Perpetual Asia Fund from 1990-2005, receiving an AA rating from Standard & Poor's. From 1980-1988, Kathryn worked at Jardine Matheson Group, latterly as investment manager with Jardine Fleming, overseeing pension funds in the Far East. Kathryn was educated at Cambridge University, England.

Lloyd George Management, founded in 1991, comprises a group of highly-qualified and experienced investment professionals. Individually and collectively, they have extensive hands-on experience in the securities markets of the China region, including the management of several regional mutual funds.