

Brendan McCarthy

ESG Research Analyst

Brendan McCarthy is an assistant vice president and ESG research analyst for Calvert Research and Management, a wholly owned subsidiary of Eaton Vance Management that specializes in responsible and sustainable investing across global capital markets. He is responsible for environmental, social and governance (ESG) research coverage of the real estate sector. He joined Calvert in 2019.

Brendan began his career in the investment management industry in 2007. Before joining Calvert, he was the investment manager for the Earth Partners, an environmentally focused private equity firm. Previously, he worked for the Gladstone Companies advising its REIT, Gladstone Commercial, and for Wells Fargo Bank in the commercial real estate group and in the special situations group.

Brendan earned a B.A. in economics from Kenyon College, and an MBA from UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School.
